WEST Hou, Inc. dba WEST Engineering Services ("WEST" or the "Company")

Founded in 1984, WEST is a global, multi-discipline engineering and consulting firm that specializes in drilling equipment surveys, assessments and certification for deepwater offshore drilling equipment. WEST pioneered the business of third-party assessments of drilling rig equipment with particular expertise in drill-through equipment, specifically blowout preventers (BOPs), and has positioned the Company as the industry leader in this field. Over its 28 year history, the Company has developed a proprietary data system that compiles and organizes several decades of historical data, which is very resourceful for staff and provides a significant competitive advantage in the industry. WEST employs over 200 employees and is headquartered in Brookshire, Texas.
