Mohawk Energy Ltd. (“Mohawk”)

Mohawk provides expandable tubular solutions in pursuit of well integrity, improved well productivity and recovery. Mohawk designs, develops, manufactures and installs tubular expansion technologies and products that solve E&P operators’ downhole challenges, including casing patches, long lateral refrac patches and other well integrity products throughout the global marketplace. Mohawk has recently performed installations with a major operator in the North Sea to improve well productivity and performance using its novel wireline-based expandable technology. Mohawk was founded in 2004 and is headquartered in Houston, Texas. Mohawk primarily operates across the U.S., the North Sea and the Middle East.

Buckthorn Partners LLP (“Buckthorn”)

Buckthorn makes private equity investments in the oilfield services sector. Working in partnership with experienced management teams, Buckthorn provides primary capital and strategic direction to help build successful companies both organically and through acquisition. Buckthorn is particularly focused on the internationalization of businesses and seeks to expand its portfolio companies’ service offerings beyond the U.S., or any other single country, into other major oil and gas markets globally.

Coretrax Technology Ltd. (“Coretrax”)

Coretrax is an independent wellbore clean-up and abandonment specialist. With a strong engineering focus, Coretrax offers a range of solutions and award-winning tools designed to deliver measurable cost and rig time savings. Coretrax, which has an engineering house, workshop and test facility at its headquarters in Aberdeen, has operations in the Middle East and South East Asia, with plans for further international expansion.

PPHB LP

PPHB is an independent investment banking firm providing financial advisory services exclusively to clients in the energy service industry.
